

Matir Assurim

By: Gitty Zee

From the start of the war,
Our fear has been strong.
Who would have believed
It would go on for so long?

Ripped from their homes,
Torn from their land,
The hostages are tortured
By Hamas' evil hand.

Day follows day
With no good news to share;
We cry and we wonder -
How much more can we bear?

It is scary to think
Of the pain they've endured;
The innocent hostages
Of this terrible war.

And just when we thought
We could deal with no more,
We were given a glimpse
Of what Hashem Has in store.

4 hostages were rescued
In a miraculous way,
Our faith was renewed
On that amazing day.

In our wildest dreams
Never did we imagine
That a miracle so great
Could actually happen.

In a hopeless situation
When things seem so bleak,
Hashem renewed our Emunah;
He gave us a peek.

The chesed of Hashem
Isn't bound by 'sense'.
His power and capabilities
Are vast and Immense.

So, we turn to Hashem
Look what He can do.
If He saved those hostages,
He will save the others too.
